“A career in Europe: discover new opportunities during the Info days of the Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce”

Brussels is the capital of the European affairs, as it is home to the main EU Institutions, lobby offices, consultancy companies and NGOs. Thank to its international and dynamic environment, Brussels gives to motivated young people the opportunity to start a professional career in the EU affairs.

In this context the Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce organizes an Information day concerning European career opportunities in Brussels. During the Info day, an expert will explain the features of the International Master in European Studies – Policy Advisor and Project Consultant (www.europeanmaster.net) and the Summer School in Cooperation and Development (www.cooperazioneallosviluppo.eu).

The next Info day will be held on Friday, 9th December 2011, from 16:30 to 17:30, at the Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce office in avenue Henri Jaspar 113 – 1060 Bruxelles.

In January the info days will move to Italy for a tour in Milan, Rome and other Italian cities, with the cycle of seminars: “A career in Europe: policy advisor and project consultant”. Further information will be available soon.

Participation to the info days is free; please, register sending your name to the email master@ccitabel.com quoting “Info day – Name of the city” on the subject.
